Come celebrate on May 17th as Cranberry Golf Resort rebrands itself to Living Stone Golf Resort

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Collingwood, ON) – Living Water Resorts is excited to be hosting a rebranding ceremony, as Cranberry Golf Resort changes its name to Living Stone Golf Resort. Living Stone Golf Resort will be a unique and distinct resort experience that remains an important part of the Living Water family.

When: Thursday May 17 from 3:00 pm – 6:00 pm

Where: Cranberry Golf Resort, 19 Keith Ave. Collingwood, ON L9Y 4T9

The event will allow attendees to hear about Cranberry's history, and view the exciting transformation for themselves. Collingwood Mayor Sandra Cooper will be among the distinguished guests present.

"Together our work has proven that we can make a difference and help Collingwood remain the charismatic and inspiring place it is today," said Living Water Resorts owner Larry Law. 'We are excited for our future plans and look forward to celebrating with the Collingwood community.'

In 1992, Hong Kong émigré turned Canadian entrepreneur Larry Law purchased the former Cranberry Village, and expanded it from a 78-room hotel to about 370 rooms today. Cranberry also includes an 18-hole championship golf course, a 120-boat slip marina, full service spa featuring Ontario's only Aquapath™ treatment, three restaurants, a waterfront banquet facility and a recreation facility.

In 2009, Law began to work on Living Water Resort & Spa. With Living Water's rapid expansion, it quickly became the "big sister" brand to Cranberry Golf Resort. Today, all of the properties operate under the Living Water Resorts umbrella.

Law and the team are confident the rebrand of the Cranberry Golf Resort to Living Stone Golf Resort will acknowledge both the incredible transformation Cranberry Golf Resort has undergone in the past two decades, as well as its important place within the Living Water Resorts family. Both Living Stone Golf Resort and the Living Water Resort & Spa family will continue to provide Collingwood with an exceptional place to both work and vacation.
